EIN: 25-6774871 Form 990-PF For the Fiscal Year Ended June 30, 2011

Form 990-PF, Part IX A, Line 1 Summary of Direct Charitable Activities

Sunnylands Retreats, Conferences and Visitor Center

The Annenberg Foundation Trust at Sunnylands ("Trust") will sponsor a variety of nonpartisan retreats, conferences and programs that will be directed toward cultivating, developing and improving the capabilities of various leader in government, education, charity, and other important fields of endeavor by promoting and facilitating the exchange of ideas among such individuals through the widest possible range of opportunities for high-level interaction and communication. Each retreat, conference and program will also serve to further and improve the particular field of endeavor, in all cases for the advancement of the common good, the public interest and for the benefit of society as a whole. These activities will be conducted on property owned by the Trust known as "Sunnylands," a 200 acre estate located in Rancho Mirage, California, the former residence of Ambassador and Mrs. Walter H. Annenberg. Additionally, construction of a Visitor Center ("Center") was recently completed at Sunnylands. The Center will be used for conferences and programs organized by the Trust and will have exhibits and educational programs for the general public. The Center will also offer tours of Sunnylands to the general public. Activities of the Trust during the fiscal year ending June 30, 2011, included finalizing construction of the Center and landscaping the surrounding desert garden, continuing work on developing exhibition and video materials at the Center, and restoration and preservation of the historic residence and grounds in preparation for retreats and public tours.

American Institutions of Democracy

This project works to enhance the public's appreciation of the nature and function of democratic institutions. The project focuses on educating people about the history, current state, and challenges facing the executive, legislative, and judicial branches of U.S. government, as well as those facing the press and public schools. Commissions of scholars have synthesized what is known about the institutions, identified research priorities, and have disseminated their findings to scholars and the public through volumes published by the Oxford University Press.

Constitution Day 2010. 40,000 Copies of the 2010 Constitution Day DVD were distributed, primarily to schools and libraries. The DVD featured the following vidoes: A Conversation on the Constitution with Justices Stephen G. Breyer, Sandra Day O'Connor and Anthony M. Kennedy: Jury Service; FAQs: Juries; Jury Selection: Edmonsonville v. Leesville Concrete Company; A Conversation on the Constitution with Justices Stephen G. Breyer and Sandra Day O'Connor: Our Constitution; A Conversation on the Constitution with Justices Stephen G. Breyer and Antonin Scalia: Judicial Interpretation; and Korematsu and Civil Liberties. The videos were also available for download on the websites in the APPC family of civics sites – AnnenbergClassroom.org, SunnylandsClassroom.org, StudentVoices.org and JusticeLearning.org

Justice Breyer and the students participated in a videotaped question-and-answer session on two topics: Ledbetter v. Goodyear Tire and dissenting opinions in the Court. This taping has been developed into two Conversations on the Constitution that was released for Constitution Day 2011.
- Civic Mission of Schools Meeting. More than seventy of the leaders in the field of youth civic education and engagement—representing academia, foundations, government, and non-profits—met to begin work on Restoring the Civic Mission of Schools on March 30, 2011. This report will build on landmark research published since the 2003 Carnegie Corporation of New York report, The Civic Mission of Schools. It was released in September 2011 and will become the definitive statement on why the civic mission of schools must be restored, and how it will be restored.

A visitor and educational Center is being built in Rancho Mirage, California. The Center will host conferences consistent with its mission, and will have exhibits open to the general public. The 15,000 square foot structure will be located on property adjoining the Annenberg's estate, "Sunnylands." The estate is noteworthy as an exemplar of mid century modernist architecture designed by the legendary architect A. Quincy Jones, and as the home of the distinguished couple who created and furnished it with some of the nation's finest art and sculpture. The Center will offer tours of the estate in FY12
